They are noted for accuracy and broad understanding of modern business methods, being thoroughly familiar with all laws of the state.

Lynchburg Iron and Metal Co.

When your machine is in need of some new part, stop at 1200 commerce in Lynchburg and get the best.

A few years ago one wishing replacement parts or repairs for his machine was forced to send to the factory or if it were an obsolete model or car he might have to have patterns made or parts forged and machined in some machine shop. This involved much loss of time and could not help but be very expensive. At the same time the finished piece could not possibly equal the factory made part because the modern factory has special material specifications for practically every part that enters an automobile.

Today you have simply to visit the establishment of the Lynchburg Iron and Metal Company and select the parts you need. This is but another indication of progressiveness.

This modern parts house can be said to act as a clearing house between the parts manufacturers and the garage men or owners.

The manufacturer now specialize in nothing but axle shafts and gears, another in nothing but bearings, still another in pistons and so on, but in each case they can duplicate exactly the specifications as to material, heat, treatment, etc., thereby placing the user with an article equal to that of the car manufacturer.

This progressive auto parts company has studied the needs of the automobile owner, and invested the money necessary to provide this enormous stock They are thereby able to save days and possibly weeks of time and expense and deliver to you the highest grade material. No matter what part you may need for your car you will find it at the Lynchburg Iron and Metal Company.

They carry a most complete line and you will find their service courteous and accommodating at all times.

This well known establishment is conveniently located and if you are in need of anything in this line you will find it to your interest to visit it.

Mrs. Sheard's Beauty Shop

At 207 Seventh in Lynchburg keep their shop open in the evening from 6 p. m. to 9:30 p. m.

The operators are competent to handle every texture of hair. All permanent waving guaranteed.

Here will be found a most distinctive beauty shop which has gained a well merited patronage from among the most discriminating matrons and misses not only of the city but from the smaller towns and surrounding country as well. Study and experience on the part of the operator here places this busy shop in the rank of professionals in their line and thoroughly competent to advise patrons as to the treatment they will best respond to your own particular case.

They are especially skilled and equipped for the modern bobbing of the hair, such as cutting, waving, massaging, shampooing, marcelling and permanent waving, as well as the highest grade facial treatments known to the cosmician's art.

At this shop they now have a method that will remove a dead hair permenantly from the face. They also give the "Eugene" "Frederick Vita-Tonic," and the Realistic Quiri-gonle permenant waves. Also the $7.50 "Princess" wave.

"Hair after the permanent wave process, is nearly restored to its natural condition and responds thereafter to the natural heat of the body and natural moisture of the atmosphere. On an extremely dry day a damp brush will increase the curl instead of taking it out. These things all go to prove that nature will assist the permanent wave."

It is openly admitted by skin specialists that activity of the body lends brightness to the face and makes one appear young, still there are signs of age that appear even with a healthy, active body, and at this shop the give-away lines and flabby muscles are remedied. The treatment chosen by the experienced management is the one which is best suited for each case.

Both the social and business woman of today have demanded the full value of correct personal appearance.

Service Dairy & Ice Cream Co., Inc.

This concern located at 706 Eighth street in Lynchburg is the home of the famous "Lynchburg Quality" brand of ice cream. Ask for it at your favorite grill. This firm was formerly the Service Creamery Inc., and continues to manufacture the same products and serve the public in the same admirable manner.

It is deliciously different from the ordinary ice cream and manufactured out of the very best materials under the most sanitary conditions. An institution that is in the van of progress.

With the development of the ice cream industry from its infancy only a few years ago, there have come many and varied changes. The contest for supremacy was first developed along the line of furnishing ice cream of any old kind, just so it was sold at a cheap price. This era has passed away and the management of this firm is largely instrumental for this change in policy in this part of the state.

Realizing that the public taste has been developed to such an extent that it has become epicurean relative to ice cream, they set about the establishment of an institution that was thoroughly modern and in keeping with the demands of the day. They purchased and installed the very latest of equipment for the correct manufacture and freezing of ice cream and organized their factory along the most sanitary lines. With this foundation, they purchased only the very purest of ingredients and consequently their product is the best than can be secured on the market. This ice cream is sold in seal tight containers and every precaution is taken for its richness, purity and safety of delivery so that whether you buy it at the drug store or in wholesale quantity you are assured that it will always be found in the best of condition.

They transact a wholesale business and render their customers the best of service.

The "Lynchburg Quality" brand of ice cream is a food, rather than a fad, and contains all the life-giving and life-sustaining quantities of growing and children. One quart of this ice cream equals one and one-half pounds of beefsteak, or fourteen eggs, or ten and three-quarter pounds of tomatoes, or four-fifths of a pound of ham, or one and four-fifths pounds of baked beans.

The manager is a well-known business man who is not only progressive and public spirited as well as always aids in all movements for public improvement.

Ferroni Auto Wrecking Co.

With headquarters at 1402 Main, in Lynchburg and whose telephone number is 547 is a firm that is furnishing an excellent service in a business every one should support. They deal in second hand parts for automobiles. Ninety per cent of all parts are as good as new.

In recent years, when an automobile became worthless it was junked and nothing more thought of it. Now this is not so, for companies like this one have been formed whose purpose is to salvage automobiles.

They tear down and utilize the parts in various ways. By doing so they save the cost of producing these parts again, which releases material and labor for the production of new parts and for new cars. There are many parts of an automobile that show but little wear after years of service and while they can be broken and are in many cases, they scarcely ever wear out. This places on the market these parts, practically as good as new at prices that are much under those of new ones. This accrues to the benefit of the motorist, and this fact alone is causing wrecking companies such as this one to increase in popularity each year.

They have a large stock of parts for all cars and if you need parts it will pay you to call and in all probability they will be able to supply your demand and fix you out in the best shape and at prices much under the price of new parts.

Because of the ready sale of these parts when salvaged the Ferroni Auto Wrecking Company will surprise you in the price they will give you for the automobile that you thought was only good for junk. Give them a chance regardless of the condition of the machine and we are sure you will be satisfied.

We are pleased to compliment the proprietors on the nature of the business and to assure all readers that whenever they have anything to dispose of in their line they can do no better than to get in touch with this firm.

McDaniel-Kelley Electric Company

The McDaniel—Kelly Electric Company located at 106 Sixth street in Lynchburg and whose phone number is 371, do all kinds of motor generator and armature re-winding and repairing as well as transformer work. They are agents for General Motors and contractors and feature a special department for electric wiring and contracting for general electrical work throughout this section of the state this place is known as an establishment where high-class workmanship and dependable merchandise may be bought.

The proper methods of repairing motors requires an accurate knowledge of one branch of electrical engineering. This one branch is sufficiently broad in its scope to require a lifetime of experience. A man with this type of information can and often does perform feats that to the layman seem impossible and in a temporary repair that will keep a factory going until another motor can be secured and the damaged unit properly repaired. This is the type of work accomplished at the McDaniel — Kelly Electric Company.

A disabled or defective motor is systematically tested with electrical instruments that show instantly a broken wire, burned out insulation, faulty connection or other defect. The trouble once found is readily remedied. Armature or field coils are rewound to best suit the conditions under which the and coiling systems are renewed and the motor thoroughly tested. Oftentimes a motor fails not because it hasn't sufficient power when running at normal speed but because it is called upon to start a heavy load before it gets up speed, as might be the case of the motor running a large refrigerating, machine. This calls for a motor with an exceptionally strong starting torque.

A. S. White & Co., Inc.

A well organized and present day concern with extensive establishment in Lynchburg, at 1004 Commerce, whose service is a progressive wholesale grocery house has been essential in the continued development and expansion of Lynchburg and vicinity. One of the popular firms of the country, under experienced management.

There isn't any question but that this establishment is an important factor in the commercial and business life of this section, as it is one of the foremost wholesale grocery houses in this part of the country.

The retailers have come to know that they can get from them the very best goods on the market, hence they seek no further market. They have a reputation far and wide as business men of wide experience and straight-forward methods, and it is not surprising that the volume of the business is ever increasing.

They long ago determined to see that their patrons received the better quality which the consumer demands in these days and therefore it is not strange that patrons of stores who receive their goods from this wholesale grocery house seldom think of buying elsewhere.

There is a great deal more to the business of conducting a wholesale grocery than the average man understands. This is an essential business that requires at his head a man of experience in the buying world and executives who are familiar with the details and the necessity for adequate distribution. It is such sources as this one that add to the convenience and comfort of the modern householder and provides wholesome goods of the highest quality at the most reasonable prices.

The officers and employees of the A. S. White and Company are clean-cut affable and accommodating to a marked degree.

We are pleased in this edition to direct our attention to this establishment as a distinctive feature of the commercial and industrial efficiency of this country and to the management as among the leading business men and most valued citizens of the community, who materially assist in making this county more progressive and more attractive from a commercial standpoint.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD BOY KNOWS HIS BIBLE

Quotes Items From Scriptures With Facility.

Cincinnati.—If some person were to approach five-year-old Jacques D. Rietze and maternally lisp, "I'm a itty boy 'appy?" she'd probably receive some such amazing reply:

"Exceedingly, madam. Playing with a miniature locomotive affords me great pleasure."

If the minister should walk into the Rietze home and query of Jacques, "What was the greatest factor contributing to the defeat of the Ephraimites at the Jordan?" the boy likely would reply: "They didn't know their pronunciation."

Since he was four Jacques has been studying the Bible. He has learned none of its contents in that time, perhaps, then the average individual learns in a lifetime.

He knows and can furnish identities of Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, not to mention the more public characters of Moses, Noah, and Abraham. He can deliver a sermon, quote scripture, and define "metaphysics," as well as "ecclesiastic."

His one handicap is speech. So zealous is he to impart his knowledge of religious subjects to listeners that the words fairly tumble out of his mouth. Consequently, he is rather difficult to understand in speech, as well as subject.

Like normal boys of his age, he delights with his toys, but even at play he mumbles Biblical quotations to himself. Once a passage is read him he never forgets and can repeat it verbatim.

His mother first acquainted him with the Bible. A few preliminary readings, however, and Jacques took the initiative to learn more. Mrs. Rietze cannot explain her son's unusual acumen and is fearful that he may become "not enough like other boys." However, when attempts are made to divert his mind to other subjects his day is spoiled, his mother declares.

A month ago Jacques was ill. Noticing the distress of his mother, he calmly assured her, "Don't worry, mother. Christ will cure me."

Seattle Cat Reaches Grand Old Age of 21

Seattle, Wash.—Teddy, T. M. McCranney's tomcat, has attained the age of twenty-one years. He is still very despite his great feline age, and, although partly blind, still is able to catch a mouse now and then.
